Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the public for the enormous patronage received by us during the past week. We feel that our efforts to please the people have been most liberally rewarded. It has been our object to deal fairly and squarely with our customers and to give them good goods. We wish them a merry Christmas and a happy New year. Respectfully,

WM. SAUER.

Shakespearean Recital.

Hon. John F. Howard, a noted Shakespearean reader of Boston, will give one of his delightful recitals at the Elks' Hall, Wednesday evening, January 10th. On this occasion he will recite "Julius Caesar." Mr. Howard is spoken of in the highest terms by the press wherever he has given his recitals.

Fatal Fall From Interurban Car.

Nathan Myers, aged 25 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers, of Carlisle, fell from the rear end of the 12 o'clock interurban south-bound car, Sunday, at the forks of the Bethlehem and Hume and Bedford pikes, near town, and received injuries which proved fatal.

He was brought to the Fordham Hotel in a buggy in an unconscious condition and was given every medical attention, but never regained consciousness and passed away at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. His mother and sister, accompanied by Dr. W. D. Howe, of Carlisle, arrived at his bedside Sunday evening, and were with him when the end came. The remains were taken to Carlisle for interment.

The young man in attempting to board the car while running past Eighth street was dragged for some distance, but finally got on. He was standing on the rear platform at the time he received the fatal fall. The car leaves the middle of the pike at this point for the side of the road and the sudden lurch of the car threw Mr. Myers headforemost to the pike. His skull was fractured and he also received internal injuries.

Prisoners Vaccinated.

The ten prisoners convicted of a felony at the late term of Circuit Court will be vaccinated before being taken to the penitentiary at Frankfort.

"Best Ever."

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I desire to thank my numerous friends and patrons for their magnificent patronage during the holidays, and to assure them that their treatment is most certainly appreciated. My business last year was the largest I had ever experienced, and I hardly hoped to equal it this year; yet I not only equaled, but went far beyond and set a high-water mark.

There is no question but what it pays to advertise, and that the local press is the best medium through which to reach the public. You not only get good results, but fair, courteous and honorable treatment.

One thing more: Paris is the place for Paris and Bourbon county people to transact business, for by so doing they make the best town in the State a still better one; in fact, one worthy of her inhabitants, the best people on earth. Wishing everybody a merry Christmas and prosperous New Year, I am greatly yours,

J. T. HINTON.

Blackburn Man Leads For Speakership.

The Speakership of the House is looming up as an important factor in the Kentucky Senatorial contest. It is conceded that George W. Hickman, Blackburn's friend, will be elected President pro tem of the Senate, but the Speakership is hotly contested by Henry Lawrence, a Paynter man, and R. W. Miller, a Blackburn man.

Saturday four Representatives living in Lawrence's Congressional district met at Paducah and signed an agreement that as they are for Blackburn for Senator they will vote for no candidate for Speaker who will not agree to support Blackburn. They are W. T. White Ballard, of Carlisle; Joe Jackson, of Hickman and Fulton; John R. Ray, of Graves, and E. Barrett, of Marshall and Lyon. Each of them is pledged to Miller. There are only two other Democratic Representatives in Lawrence's district. Miller's friends claim seven votes of the Louisville delegation and are confident of his election.

—Manager Borland, of the Grand, was accosted on the streets the other day by one of the Paris would-be critics as follows:

"Dora Thorn."

"Ah, I've seen her; she's good all right. What's she playing this year?"
